

Katerina Papalexandri

Chief Financial Officer, Arcius Energy

Katerina Papalexandri has served as Chief Financial Officer at Arcius Energy since its foundation in 2024. Prior to her current role, she held the position of Vice President for Caspian Gas Business Development at bp.

Papalexandri has nearly 25 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. She joined bp in 1998 as a process engineer, and has worked in Upstream, Gas & Power, Supply & Trading and most recently, Gas & Low-Carbon Energy.

She is an expert in the management and business development of complex gas projects and gas value chains and has a proven track record in joint venture management. Her contribution was critical to the development and commercial operations of the Southern Gas Corridor.

Papalexandri trained as a chemical engineer at Aristotle University, Greece, and holds a PhD in Chemical Engineering from Imperial College, London.